Waterford TREASURES

WELCOME

Welcome to Waterford Treasures – the only dedicated Museum Quarter on the island of Ireland.

Waterford Treasures is a group of 6 distinctly different museums set within buildings ranging from the 12th to the 21st centuries and all within walking distance of each other, in Waterford's Historic Viking Triangle.

If you are looking for an inspiring, educational day out, then Waterford Treasures is the place for you and your students!

We offer a range of educational and interactive events, workshops, and tours for students of all ages. Our carefully created activities seek to capture the imagination of students while also focusing on encompassing a variety of historical themes.

Our expert guides aim to create lasting memories for students of all ages by bringing history to life in a fun and engaging manner.

Please note, admission for teachers/tour leaders is free of charge when accompanying students.

Collection of Experiences

EPIC WALKING TOUR OF THE VIKING TRIANGLE

The Epic Walking Tour of the Viking Triangle introduces visitors to the great stories of Ireland's oldest city from the Vikings to the Victorians. This walking tour covers a thousand years of history in a thousand paces. Here in the Viking Triangle, guests will meet warring Vikings, be inspired by medieval wonders and elegant Georgian architecture.

Medieval
MUSEUM

THE MEDIEVAL MUSEUM

The Medieval Museum, Ireland's only purpose-built Medieval Museum, incorporates two medieval chambers: the 13th-century Choristers Hall and 15th Century Wine vault. Guests can view incredible artefacts including the only complete set of Medieval Cloth of Gold Vestments in Northern Europe which had been buried for almost 125 years.

Bishop's
PALACE

THE BISHOP'S PALACE

The Bishop's Palace is an 18th-century Georgian home containing a stunning collection of Irish treasures, including the oldest piece of Waterford Crystal ever made - The Penrose Decanter.

Irish Silver
MUSEUM

THE IRISH SILVER MUSEUM

The Irish Silver Museum is an intimate and personal collection of silver treasures from Ireland. From the Vikings to the Victorians, our collection has been created by Ireland's virtuoso craftsmen over the course of a millennium. The collection offers a rare opportunity to step back in time and explore the fascinating story of Ireland through its magnificent silver treasures.

Irish Museum
OF TIME

THE IRISH MUSEUM OF TIME

Ireland's National Horological Museum features the oldest Irish-made grandfather clocks and watches in the world and celebrates the incredible skills of the virtuoso craftsmen who, since the seventeenth century, created timepieces of remarkable beauty and technological genius.

THE KING OF THE VIKINGS

This award-winning virtual reality adventure gives guests the opportunity to get up close and personal with the Vikings who founded Waterford over 1000 years ago. Experience the thrill of raiding the Viking settlement they called 'Vadrefjordyr'. The King of the Vikings is the world's first Viking VR adventure.

THE IRISH WAKE MUSEUM

The Irish Wake is a celebration of life, which evolved from the ancient Celtic wake. Explore the history and traditions surrounding this amazing custom. Learn about where it all began, why these traditions have carried on into modern Ireland and how they differ from funeral rites around the world.

Waterford TREASURES

EXPERIENCE
THE WORLD' S FIRST VIRTUAL
REALITY VIKING EXPERIENCE

THE KING OF THE VIKINGS -VIRTUAL REALITY

Introduce your students to an exciting virtual reality adventure where they will get up close and personal with the Vikings who founded our city in 914AD. Students will witness the Vikings seize control of the settlement that we now call Waterford in the world's first Virtual Reality Viking Experience.

Educational Experiences for Primary School Students

History Heroes

Learn about Waterford's history through great characters that once walked our streets. Examine their lives and objects associated with them as part of this workshop that takes students through 1000 years of Waterford's history using fun games and activities. Students will work in groups to inhabit these history heroes & will participate in object handling.

Duration: 90 mins Min/max numbers: 15 - 30 people Price: €4 pp

Life in Viking Waterford

What was life like for our Viking ancestors? What roles did they play in society? How did they defend themselves? Learn about all of this and more in this fun workshop which encourages students to consider how the lives of Vikings were both very different and very similar to their own. Students will try on costumes, handle objects, learn to play ancient games and more.

Duration: 90 mins Min/max numbers: 15 - 30 people Price: €4 pp

Life in Medieval Waterford

How did medieval Waterford look and sound? What sort of people walked its streets, how important were the medieval city walls? Like our Viking workshop this experience is concerned with encouraging children to think about their own lives in relation to the lives of our ancestors, to literally step into their shoes. Object and costume handling, group activities and games will make up this ninety-minute workshop.

Duration: 90 mins Min/max numbers: 15 - 30 people Price: €4 pp

Waterford TREASURES

Educational Experiences for Primary School Students contd.

The Work of an Archaeologist

How do we know all we know about the lives of people in the past? Indiana Jones may not be the reality but in this two hour workshop your students will literally get their hands dirty as they experience first hand the work of an archaeologist. A short tour of some museum objects followed by carrying out their own mini digs form the main body of the experience but while replica objects are always cool, some students may just find a real artefact in their dig site...

Duration: 2 hours Min/max numbers: 15 - 30 people Price: €5 pp

A Stitch in Time

How important are our clothes? What can you tell about the person that might have work them? This ninety-minute workshop is a timeline of history – through clothes! Clothing from the Viking period to more modern times will be available for children to handle and try on along with some accessories to round out our historic characters. By stepping into the shoes of their ancestors students will gain a new appreciation for life across different historic periods.

Duration: 90 mins Min/max numbers: 15 - 30 people Price: €4 pp

Time Flies

Do you ever wonder about the science and story of time? When did time become important to us? Has it always looked the same? Building on our world-class Museum of Time, this workshop for students will look at some of the crucial time-telling objects of our past and our present and complete activities to gain an understanding of the role time plays in our lives.

Duration: 2 hours Min/max numbers: 15 - 30 people Price: €4 pp
